Course Description
This is an introductory course that focuses on strategic methods of differentiating instruction for the success of all learners in curriculum design and implementation. Students will research some of the basics of human learning and what this means for the teaching process. Effective strategies for teaching to the diversity in today’s classrooms (English learners, special populations) are identified and implemented. Various methods of assessment and effective feedback strategies are reviewed, with ongoing forums for reflecting on each candidate’s teaching practice.

National Board for Professional Teaching Standards are aligned in this course with learning objectives as well as with the rubric for the mini-unit, the summative project.

Course Dates:
Self-paced; students may enroll at any time and take up to one year to complete assignments.

You have up to one year from the date of registration, and no less than three weeks (one week per credit), to complete the course.

Learning Objectives / Outcomes – students will be able to:
1. Apply the basic principles of brain biology to the design and implementation of the lesson planning process. (Prop. 1.3, 4.2)
2. Demonstrate growth in their ability to design, implement, and adapt differentiated curriculum to meet students at their level of interest and ability. (Prop. 1.1, 1.2, 2.1, 2.3, 3.1, 3.2, 4.2)
3. Implement various methods of assessing student learning analyzing learner outcomes and possible next steps. (Prop. 3.3, 3.4)
4. Reflect on their own teaching practice through interactions with peers and with written responses. (Prop. 4.3, 5.1, 5.5)
5. Utilize appropriate software to organize methods of differentiating strategies for their students.

National Standards
- National Board for Professional Teaching Standards
  - Prop. 1: Teachers are committed to students and learning.
  - Prop. 2: Teachers know the subjects they teach and how to teach those subjects to students.
  - Prop. 3: Teachers are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning.
  - Prop. 4: Teachers think systematically about their practice and learn from experience.

Course Materials
Articles, videos, websites noted in References.

Course Requirements

Participation (25 pts.)
Interaction with your professor and peers is foundational for your learning and quality intellectual engagement with the issues will facilitate your success.

Interactive Link Exploration (15 pts.)
Explore the link Tapping into Multiple Intelligences, responding as directed.

Focused Internet Search (20 pts.)
Complete an internet search researching effective strategies for dealing with either 1) English language learners, 2) special needs students, or 3) gifted learners. Choose one.

Class Composition Description (20 pts.)
In this description you will compile information about the students in your classroom that will help you to differentiate your lessons & maximize each student’s learning experience.

Set of Connected Lessons (See lesson plan checbric.) (126pts.)
- Designed around your chosen content area.
- Use information from the class composition description to differentiate for student success.
- Include as many of the following curricular areas as possible:
Literature, writing, math, science, and social studies.
• Utilize a variety of assessment strategies.
• Incorporate numerous modalities & intelligences.

On-line Learning Forums (via Discussion Board) (text chapters = 15 pts. each x 4, articles = 10 pts. each x 4, videos = 15 pts. each x 3) (125 pts.)
Write an entry for texts or articles read and videos viewed as assigned. Note concepts that interest you, questions perked & connections made.
• Incorporation of technology as it enhances learning.

Technology Requirements:
In order to successfully complete the course requirements, course participants will need Internet access, be able to send and receive email, know how to manage simple files in a word processing program, and have a basic understanding of the Internet.

Please remember that the instructor is not able to offer technical support. In the event that you need technical support, please contact your Internet Service Provider.

Moodle:
This course will be delivered totally online. Moodle is a learning management system that provides students access to online resources, documents, graded assignments, quizzes, discussion forums, etc. with an easy to learn and use interface. To learn more about Moodle go to: (http://docs.moodle.org/en/Student_tutorials). There are some student tutorials on the Center for Online Learning website at Fresno Pacific University – (http://col.fresno.edu/student).

Moodle Site Login and passwords – (or other online course access information)
Students will need to have internet access to log onto http://ce-connect.fresno.edu. The username and password numbers for Moodle access will be sent to you by the university using the email address you submitted at the time of registration. The instructor will then contact you with a welcome letter and login instructions. If you need help with the username and password recovery please contact the Center for Professional Development at (800)372-5505, or (559)453-2000 during regular office hours - Mon-Fri 8:00 am to 5:00 pm.

Getting Help with Moodle:
If you need help with Moodle, please contact the Center for Online Learning (COL), by telephone 1-559-453-3460. Help by phone is available Mon-Thurs 8:00 am to 8:00pm and on Fridays from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, or by filling out a “Request Services” form at http://col.fresno.edu/contact/request-services. Please identify that you are with the Continuing Education/Independent Studies department.
