Units: 3
Grade Level: 7-12

Course Description
This online, standards-based course is designed to help teachers gain an understanding of teaching Shakespeare in the classroom. Students will have the opportunity to explore a variety of teaching strategies for approaching Shakespeare in the classroom as well as why it is important to teach Shakespeare. Special emphasis is given to vocabulary, comprehension, and fluency. The course text also includes a variety of assignments and activities that can be adapted to numerous Shakespearean plays, as well as sample student work. Students will explore the world of teaching Shakespeare on the internet and through the course text. Students will design appropriate activities and lesson plans that are tailored to the Shakespearean play of their choice. Students will be responsible for obtaining the selected course text, as it is not included in the course fees. Students should also have access to selected plays of Shakespeare appropriate for their classroom and teaching needs.

This course is strongly aligned with the standards established by the National Council of Teachers of English as well as the Common Core State Standards. The required textbook (Reading Shakespeare with Young Adults, by Mary Dakin, 2009) is an NCTE publication. The assignments are designed to help teachers implement the objectives of the standards in their own classroom. The ultimate goal is to create an environment in which students are comfortable and engaged with the works of Shakespeare. This course is ideal for teachers in the secondary classroom who teach Shakespeare in grades 7-12.

Course Dates
Self-paced; students may enroll at any time and take up to one year to complete assignments.

You have up to one year from the date of registration, and no less than three weeks (one week per credit), to complete the course.
Moodle:
This course will be delivered totally online. Moodle is a learning management system that provides students access to online resources, documents, graded assignments, quizzes, discussion forums, etc. with an easy to learn and use interface. To learn more about Moodle go to: (http://docs.moodle.org/en/Student_tutorials). There are some student tutorials on the Center for Online Learning website at Fresno Pacific University – http://col.fresno.edu/student.

Moodle Site Login and passwords – (or other online course access information)
Students will need to have internet access to log onto http://ce-connect.fresno.edu. The username and password numbers for Moodle access will be sent to you by the university using the email address you submitted at the time of registration. The instructor will then contact you with a welcome letter and login instructions. If you need help with the username and password recovery please contact the Center for Professional Development at (800)372-5505, or (559)453-2000 during regular office hours - Mon-Fri 8:00 am to 5:00 pm.

Getting Help with Moodle:
If you need help with Moodle, please contact the Center for Online Learning (COL), by telephone 1-559-453-3460. Help by phone is available Mon-Thurs 8:00 am to 8:00pm and on Fridays from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, or by filling out a “Request Services” form at http://col.fresno.edu/contact/request-services. Please identify that you are with the Continuing Education/Independent Studies department.

Please remember that the instructor is not able to offer technical support. In the event that you need technical support, please contact your Internet Service Provider.

Course Materials

Students will also need to have access to one or more plays by William Shakespeare in order to complete the assignments. Students are responsible for selecting an appropriate play (or several plays) for developing lessons and activities.

Discussion Forums
Participation is an important expectation of this course and all online courses. Online discussions promote reflection and analysis while allowing students to appreciate and evaluate positions that others express. While students may not be engaging with the same students throughout this course they will be expected to offer comments, questions, and replies to the discussion question whenever possible. The faculty role in the discussion forum is that of an observer and facilitator.
Course Requirements
Students will be required to complete the detailed assignments outlined in the schedule of topics and assignments. Students will be required to reflect and evaluate both the assigned reading and their own teaching experiences. Students will also design and implement lesson plans that reflect the teaching strategies and approaches discussed in the course texts. Reflecting and evaluating the hands-on strategies discussed is an integral part of the course curricula.

National Content / Common Core Standards
The course addresses the National Council of Teachers of English, standards #1-6, 8, 9, 11 and 12. The course also addresses the English Language Arts Standards for Reading Literature as outlined by the Common Core State Standards Initiative.

Learning Objectives / Outcomes
It is the goal of the instructor that students will have a greater understanding of the importance of teaching Shakespeare in the classroom as well as multiple strategies for approaching the ideas of vocabulary, comprehension, and fluency in Shakespeare’s plays. Please note the national standards set forth by the National Council of Teachers of English (as discussed previously) addressed by each objective.

Students of this course will be able to:
- Create a variety of lesson plans and activities that engage students with Shakespeare’s plays. (1, 2, 3, 6, 8, 12)
- Design activities and lesson plans that foster the development of students’ fluency with Shakespearean plays. (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 12)

Grading Policies and Rubrics
300 points total
270-300 = A
240-269 = B or Credit Grade
Below 239 = No Credit

The discernment between an A or a B is at the discretion of the instructor based on the quality of work submitted (see assignment rubrics). Coursework falling short of a quality equaling a B or a Credit Grade will be returned with further instructions.

All assignments must be completed in order to receive a grade. In addition, all assignments are expected to reflect the quality that teacher-training institutions require of professional educators. If completed assignments do not meet this standard, students will be notified with further instructions from the instructor.

Instructor/Student Contact
A minimum of three instructor/student contacts are required. These may be in the form of discussion form posts/responses and/or individual emails.
