Instructor: Doug Bartsch
Phone number: (559) 799-1584
Email: douglasbartsch@gmail.com

Units: 3
Grade Level: K - 12

Course Description
Learning activities are designed to challenge your thinking as you consider your own work with students. Many will have direct application to your teaching situation. Some of these ask you to respond to ideas presented while others require you to apply the concepts or strategies described. You may find some assignments so helpful that you will do them again every year as you prepare for the opening of school. Other activities you may refer to repeatedly during the school year.

Course Dates:
Self-paced; students may enroll at any time and take up to one year to complete assignments.

You have up to one year from the date of registration, and no less than three weeks (one week per credit), to complete the course.

Course Materials

• Course Resource Binder authored by instructor Douglas Bartsch includes written information on a variety of topics organized into chapters. Most chapters include response sheets or worksheets to allow you to apply the ideas presented to your teaching situation.
• Textbook: Positive Discipline by Jane Nelsen
• Audio recording (CD) from Kids need self-esteem too by James Dobson.

Course Requirements

1. Read Resource Binder and complete all twenty one response sheets including field-testing and reflections upon each field-testing activity. Should students not be available to you while completing this course, the instructor will provide alternatives to the field testing assignments.
2. Read Textbook: Positive Discipline by Jane Nelsen

- All assignments are to be typed and presented in an organized format. Students may use the format provided, but may create their own format that references each response sheet assignment (e.g. “Response Sheet 7”). Assignments need not be bound.
- Keep a copy of your coursework in the event that material is lost in the mail.

Primary Learning Outcomes

1. Teachers will gain a clearer understanding of their role, their rights and their responsibilities in creating a productive learning environment.

2. Teachers will analyze and apply the key themes prevalent in the research on classroom management and student discipline.

3. Teachers will apply key principles that support effective physical arrangement of their classroom.

4. Teachers will demonstrate an understanding of and apply strategies for establishing productive classroom rules, routines and procedures.

5. Teachers will demonstrate an understanding of the origins of student misbehavior.

6. Teachers will demonstrate an understanding of and apply strategies for encouraging appropriate behavior, including natural and logical consequences, reinforcement theory, strategies for encouragement, and other teacher communication and discipline techniques and methods.

7. Teachers will demonstrate insight with regard to the impact of their communication style and interpersonal relations upon classroom climate and student behavior.

8. Teachers will gain an understanding of concepts that influence student independence and self-reliance.

9. Teachers will research contemporary questions relative to legal aspects of discipline in their state and school district.

Discipline for Today’s Classrooms has embedded within it a variety of instructional strategies that are effective both in promoting academic content learning and in establishing productive learning environments. Throughout the course, teachers are required to reflect on their own practice, share their experiences and reflections with colleagues; and design, field-test and assess the effectiveness of strategies presented in the course. Course content directly addresses the following standards from:

The California Standards for the Teaching Profession:

STANDARD ONE: ENGAGING & SUPPORTING ALL STUDENTS IN LEARNING

1.2 Using a variety of instructional strategies and resources to respond to students’ diverse needs
1.3 Facilitating learning experiences that promote autonomy, interaction, and choice
1.5 Promoting self-directed, reflective learning for all students

STANDARD TWO: CREATING & MAINTAINING EFFECTIVE ENVIRONMENTS FOR STUDENT LEARNING

2.1 Creating a physical environment that engages all students
2.2 Establishing a climate that promotes fairness and respect
2.3 Promoting social development and group responsibility
2.4 Establishing and maintaining standards for student behavior
2.5 Planning and implementing classroom procedures and routines that support student learning
2.6 Using instructional time effectively

STANDARD FOUR: PLANNING INSTRUCTION & DESIGNING LEARNING EXPERIENCES FOR ALL STUDENTS

4.1 Drawing on and valuing students’ backgrounds, interests, and developmental learning needs
4.3 Developing and sequencing instructional activities and materials for student learning
4.5 Modifying instructional plans to adjust for student needs

STANDARD SIX: DEVELOPING AS A PROFESSIONAL EDUCATOR

6.1 Reflecting on teaching practice and planning professional development
6.2 Establishing professional goals and pursuing opportunities to grow professionally
6.3 Working with communities to improve professional practice
6.5 Working with colleagues to improve professional practice

The National Board for Professional Teaching Standards:

Creating a Productive Learning Environment - Teachers demonstrate their ability to promote student learning in a physically, socially, and emotionally safe environment that supports equitable access to learning and promotes student interaction and reflection through the use of effective classroom management skills and routines…. engaging all students in instruction in a physically safe and emotionally secure environment…. students moving from one instructional activity to another…. the teacher's ability to create a productive learning environment and manage the transition of learning activities within the instructional setting while providing meaningful time on task for students.
Schedule of Topics and Assignments
While this course is presented in a sequential manner, students may complete assignments in the sequence they choose. Students may take up to one year from the date of registration for this course to complete all work and return assignments to the instructor.

Evidence of Learning
Each assignment must be completed. Full credit for each assignment will be given based upon demonstration of both understanding of the concepts presented and personal connection/application of the concept in your teaching situation. A scoring rubric follows this syllabus that is utilized in evaluating student work and assigning grades.

Grading Policy and Rubric
- A scoring rubric follows this syllabus that is utilized in evaluating student work and assigning grades.
- Coursework falling short of a quality equaling a B will not receive credit.
- This course may be taken for a letter grade or on a credit/no credit basis. Coursework falling short of a quality equaling a B will not receive credit. The discernment between an A or B is at the discretion of the instructor based on the quality of the evidence submitted.

Instructor/Student Contact
During this course students may contact the instructor by email or telephone at any time for assistance or feedback. Students are required to make contact by email at four points during the course, following each field test experience and upon completion of all course requirements, and have contacted instructor by email to report results of field test assignments – response sheets 10, 11, and 19.
