

Recognize
human trafficking
so you can make a difference

Understanding Human Trafficking

HBM-020

Discover the realities of trafficking in California and beyond. Understand how it differs from other forms of exploitation. What factors create vulnerabilities that lead to victimization and explore the means of manipulation that traffickers employ. The Central Valley Justice Coalition (justiceco.org) offers this course based on ten plus years of experience combating sex and labor trafficking.

Program Highlights

- Recognize recruiting tactics and identify vulnerabilities of victims.
- Understand the definition of human trafficking.
- Analyze the impact of family and community on personal choice.
- Analyze similarities and differences in sex and labor trafficking.
- Identify ways of helping others avoid risk and reduce threatening situations.
- This online course includes supporting video content.
- Complete the program at your pace and on your schedule.

Central Valley Justice Coalition, Course Designer

Learn more at ce.fresno.edu/hbm-020

CENTRAL VALLEY
JUSTICE
COALITION