Course Description

Literary elements are an integral part of the study of literature. This online, standards-based course is designed to introduce and explore new tools and strategies for teaching literary elements in the classroom. Particular attention is given to the study of character, setting, point of view and theme. Students will have the opportunity to design practical, hands-on activities and lessons that will engage students with a variety of texts. Emphasis is given to strategic reading and meaningful interaction with literature, as well as the application of literary elements in student writing. Students will be responsible for obtaining the selected course text, as it is not included in the course fees. This course is strongly aligned with the standards established by the National Council of Teachers of English. The required textbook (Fresh Takes on Teaching Literary Elements, by Michael W. Smith & Jeffrey D. Wilhelm, 2010) is an NCTE publication. The course is designed to help teachers meet the standards in their own classroom, using NCTE national standards as well as the Common Core State Standards initiative. The ultimate goal is to help teachers create engaging, literature based activities that will promote critical thinking and analytical skills on the part of the students, achieving the standards that the teacher establishes. This course is ideal for English and Language Arts teachers of grades 6-12.

Note: Required textbook must be acquired separately.

National Standards Addressed in This Course

National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS)
(<http://www.nbpts.org/standards-five-core-propositions/>)

First published in 1989 and updated in 2016, *What Teachers Should Know and Be Able to Do* articulates the National Board's Five Core Propositions for teaching. The Five Core Propositions - comparable to medicine's Hippocratic Oath — set forth the profession's vision for accomplished teaching. Together, the propositions form the basis of all National Board Standards and the foundation for National Board Certification. Course assignments have been designed so students can demonstrate excellence against these professional teaching standards whenever possible.

- Proposition 1: Teachers are committed to students and their learning
- Proposition 2: Teachers know the subject they teach and how to teach those subjects to students
- Proposition 3: Teachers are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning
- Proposition 4: Teachers think systematically about their practice and learn from experience
- Proposition 5: Teachers are members of learning communities

National Content / Common Core Standards

The course addresses the National Council of Teachers of English, standards #1-6, 8, 9, 11 and 12. The course also addresses the English Language Arts Standards for Reading Literature as outlined by the Common Core State Standards Initiative.

- Assignments will be graded per criteria presented in the course rubrics.
- A = 90-100% and B = 80-89%, (anything below 80% will not receive credit.)
- The discernment between an A or a B letter grade is at the discretion of the instructor based on the quality of work submitted (see course rubrics).
- Coursework falling below a B grade will be returned with further instructions.
- All assignments must be completed to receive a grade and are expected to reflect the quality that teacher-training institutions require of professional educators. If completed assignments do not meet this standard, students will be notified with further instructions from the instructor.

Instructor/Student Contact Information

Throughout the course participants will be communicating with the instructor and their classmates on a regular basis using asynchronous discussion forums. A virtual office is utilized for class questions and students are provided with instructor contact information in the event they want to make email or phone contact. In addition, students are encouraged to email or phone the instructor at any time. Students will also receive feedback on the required assignments as they are submitted.

Discussion Forums

Participation is an important expectation of this course and all online courses. Online discussions promote reflection and analysis while allowing students to appreciate and evaluate positions that others express. While students may not be engaging with the same students throughout this course they will be expected to offer comments, questions, and replies to the discussion question whenever possible. The faculty role in the discussion forum is that of an observer and facilitator.

Coursework Hours

Based on the Carnegie Unit standard, a unit of graduate credit measures academic credit based on the number of hours the student is engaged in learning. This includes all time spent on the course: reading the textbook, watching videos, listening to audio lessons, researching topics, writing papers, creating projects, developing lesson plans, posting to discussion boards, etc. Coursework offered for FPU Continuing Education graduate credit adheres to 45 hours per semester unit for the 900-level courses. Therefore, a student will spend approximately 135 hours on a typical 3-unit course.

Services for Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities are eligible for reasonable accommodations in their academic work in all classes. In order to receive assistance, the student with a disability must provide the Academic Support Center with documentation, which describes the specific disability. The documentation must be from a qualified professional in the area of the disability (i.e. psychologist, physician or educational diagnostician). Students with disabilities should contact the Academic Support Center to discuss academic and other needs as soon as they are diagnosed with a disability. Once documentation is on file, arrangements for reasonable accommodations can be made.
