Conference Syllabus

Conference Description

The Spring CUE 2023 Conference will feature hundreds of informative learning sessions, keynotes from thought leaders and renowned educators, hands-on experiences in eSports, AR/VR, wellness, and more. Join us in Palm Springs for the ultimate educator experience! Be inspired, connect with fellow educators, and learn about the latest ideas in teaching and learning and the best educational technology for your classroom.

Learning Outcomes

- Participants will reflect on and summarize the main ideas of the information gained at the conference.
- Participants will apply specific state and district content standards/frameworks to subject matter learned at the conference.
- Participants will design lesson plans and utilize district/school site/classroom materials for use in presenting teaching strategies, techniques, and content knowledge gained at the conference.
- Participants will list, analyze and support the application of content knowledge imparted at the conference.
- Participants will report on lesson outcomes measured by classroom/school site and/or district assessment and evaluation tools.

Course Assignment: 1, 2 or 3 unit options

All Assignments due no later than Friday, June 2, 2023 by 5:00PM

1 unit option:

- Attend 12.5 hours of conference activities.
- Describe how the content of the conference experiences apply to your teaching assignment. Document by listing events attended with the time for each to validate the hours of attendance for one unit of credit. Use the attached Reflective Writing Report format to record your reflections.
- Choose an idea that you gleaned from the conference.
 - Describe the idea and write a lesson plan incorporating the idea. The lesson needs to indicate state and/or national Content Standards that can be addressed through your plan.

2 unit option:

- All requirements for the first unit must first be met. In addition:
 - Write two more lessons incorporating ideas from the conference and implement these lessons with your students. Share three student artifacts. The lesson needs to indicate state and/or national Content Standards that can be addressed through your plan.

3 unit option:

Register Online at <https://ce.fresno.edu/educator-workshops/open-enrollment-workshops/cue-professional-learning/tec-1905/>

- All requirements for the 1- and 2-unit options must be met. In addition, select and complete any TWO of the following:
- Action plan
 - Make a list of the long-term goals you want to achieve in regard to integration of skills/tools learned at this conference. Make sure your goals are clearly defined, that they are measurable and realistic, and are aligned with the state/national standards.
 - Determine a set of action steps that you can take to meet those goals, in a logical sequence, with measurable stages leading up to your goals. Assign dates to each step. This is like setting mini-goals leading to your larger goals.
 - Identify how you will assess to see that your goals have been met.
- Video or podcast:
 - Create a 5-minute video or podcast. Use the video to creatively communicate what you learned at the conference. The video or podcast may include interviews of fellow teachers, presenters...
- Presentation:
 - Create a presentation introducing content, tools and resources learned from the conference. (At least 10 slides...Prezi, PowerPoint, Google Slides, etc.)
- Interview:
 - Design an interview and interview 3 people with questions related to technology that you learned about at the conference...After interviewing them, write a 2-3 page summary of your findings and submit as a PDF or Word file.
- Survey:
 - Create and administer a survey to send to at least 10 friends and analyze the data. Post your survey to social media to get more results. The survey will include questions about people's school experiences: what activities were the most effective or enjoyable, made learning fun and memorable, created the most change within or motivated them to learn? After creating and distributing the survey, write a 2-3 page analysis of your findings, uploaded as a PDF or Word file.

All Assignments due no later than Friday, June 2, 2023 by 5:00PM

- When taking the course for two or three units, each assignment is equal to 25% of your total grade. Credit will be issued; no letter grades will be issued. A minimum of 80% total is needed to earn credit for the two units. Any coursework falling short of 80% will not receive credit.
- If assignments are completed earlier than the due date, return them to the instructor as soon as completed and your grade will be promptly posted.
- Policy on Plagiarism: All participants in the educational process at Fresno Pacific University are expected to pursue honesty and integrity in all aspects of their academic work. Academic dishonesty, including plagiarism, will be handled according to the procedures set forth in the Fresno Pacific University Catalog.
- Extensions: If an extension is needed, login to <https://ce.fresno.edu/>, click on My Account then on the Request Extension link.
- If the assignment is not received on the due date, a grade of NC will be issued unless your request for extension has been received. You will not receive a reminder of your due date.
- Coursework is to be submitted electronically to peggi.kriegbaum@fresno.edu
- You will receive an email from Peggi Kriegbaum when your coursework has been evaluated and the grade submitted. You will be able to view your grade by logging in to the CE website at <https://ce.fresno.edu/> and clicking on My Account, then View my Courses and Final Grade Report.
- Please contact Yvonne Vogt if you have any questions regarding registration or grades.

 Re: Description of the Fresno Pacific University Center for Professional Development Workshops

The following statements describe the Center for Professional Development workshops. Further inquiries may be directed to the Center for Professional office at 1-800/372-5505, 559/453-2043, or 559/453-3673.

FRESNO PACIFIC UNIVERSITY
CENTER FOR PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Fresno Pacific University is accredited by the Commission for Senior Colleges and Universities of the Western Association of Schools and colleges and authorized to offer course work through the Fresno Pacific University, Center for Professional Development. The Center for Professional Development courses serve a distinct audience consisting of practicing pre-school through twelfth grade teachers and administrators. The primary goal of the Center is to meet the needs of school districts and provide courses that will strengthen the teachers, the school district, and the students they serve.

POLICY STATEMENT

1000 Series – Professional Development Workshops and Summits

The Fresno Pacific University Center for Professional Development offers professional development workshops and summits that are primarily designed for students who have baccalaureate degrees and appropriate teaching credentials. These courses are post-baccalaureate, professional development units that are not part of a degree program, but are designed in collaboration with school districts to meet specific staff development needs. Students should seek approval of appropriate district or college officials before enrolling in these courses to satisfy any degree, state credential, or local school district requirements. The FPU transcript legend reads as follows for workshops:

Course Number	Course Category
1000 - 1999	Graduate-level university credit offered through the Center for Professional Development for workshops and conferences, and not part of a degree program

ENROLLMENT PROCEDURES

Enrollment: Enrollment in workshops for which Fresno Pacific University Center for Professional Development units are offered is possible during the first two class sessions. Students must complete a Registration Form and return it along with payment, to either the course instructor or directly to FPU/CPD, whichever is applicable.

Refunds: A full refund for tuition, less a $20 handling fee, will be granted if a course is dropped before the course is 50% completed. After the halfway point, a 50% refund will be granted; after the course is completed, no tuition refund will be issued.

Grades: A grade of Credit/No Credit (CR or NC) will be issued for all coursework. Credit is equivalent to a B grade or better. Letter grades are not issued. Login/create an account on the CE website at ce.fresno.edu; click on My Account, then on View My Classes and/or Final Grade Report.

Transcripts: Official Transcripts may be obtained AFTER you have viewed your grade online. Login/create an account on our CE website at ce.fresno.edu/; click on My Account, then on Order Transcript.
